U. S. CROUIT COURT.-The Court met Carnon presiding. Owing to the absence of Judge Trigo, the newly appointed District Judge Judge Carnon determined to adjourn Court until the first Monday in November next.

TIMATRE.-Miss SCANLAN on Friday afternoon had a fine house. We see that Mr. S. T. Stnows, the treasurer, has his Benefit on Monday. Two young ladies of the city make their first appearance on any stage. The other attractions will be great.

THE following colleguy took place yesterday in Frank Panaisn's noted barber-shop, about the only institution of the kind now flourishing in this city, the artists of the other establishments having been impressed to work on the fortifica-

"Jim, what's the difference between General Lincoln and General Negley?" "Go way, fool nigger, dey's had no difference, ever I heard of."

"Oh yes, dey has; General Liscoins started de irrepressible conflict, and General NEGLEV started de pressible conflict."

"Leave here, nigger, or I'll lift you out of your inexpressibles, sure."

What else might have been said we are unable to record, as the press-gang came up that instant and walked off with the conundram-maker.

For Louisville.- It will be seen by ceference to the card of Mr. J. LE ABLE, that he intends starting a regular line of stages from Nashville to Franklin, Ky., and we are requested to say that he will carry letters free of charge.

LATE Charleston papers announce the death of Brigadier General WILLEAS DUNCAN SMITH.

RETURNED .- Dr. HERMAN has just returned from Cincinnati, with a complete stock of goods used in Dental Surgery, including a large amount of Gold Fon. His office is on Cherry Street, formerly occupied by Judge CATRON. Oct. 25-1t+

The Usurpations of the Jeff. Davis . Government.

The Richmond Examiner, after publishing some correspondence involving a dispute between Confederate and Virginia State officers, denounces what it styles the arrogance of the Confederate authorities. It says:

The earnestness and simplicity with for the success of the Confederate Government in this war has been grossly abused. Virginia is the object of endless imposition. But there are limits to rect. everything, and the patience of the State will not stand much longer the repetition of affeorts. This Commonwealth has to have done in ancient or modern history.
